The series of meetings of the past two weeks, which have been conducted by Rev. W. S. Smither at the Lawrence Creek Christian Church, closed Sunday night with a very large audience. During the entire meeting the attendance and interest was excellent. There were twenty-one added to the church by confession and baptism. taining free turnpikes.

Yesterday afteranoon anout 2 o'clock
the cry of "firet" attracted the citizens
in the neighborhood of Market street.

Upon investigation it proved to be the roof of the building occupied by Ogaracusality Strawder, the tonsorialist. Several volunteered to run the risk, and got upon the root with a quart cup and soon
had the confiscaration under control.

The loss will probably reach the sum of 25 cents, which is fully covered by insurance. The origin is a mystery, but is thought to have been the work of incendiaries. Pigs For Sale!
Dr. A. N. Ellis, living on the Ohio side three miles above here, has a fine lot of Poland China pigs for sale, running from 60 to 100 pounds each.

W. Mary Commander-in-Chief of the Miles. Who is to succeed Lieut. Gen. Schoffeld, as major general commanding the army, was born at West-minster, Mass., in 1830, and, with the exception of Gen. Sheridan, is the youngest officer that ever held that position. His appointment possesses more than ordinary interest from the high office who has not been graduated from the West Point military academy. It can literally be said that he fought his way up the ladder. The outbreak of the war found him a clerk in a crockery store is Boston. After a six month's course in temporary military school in that city, which was wont to the front as second lieutenant in the 22d Massachusetts volunteers. He rose through successive grades to that of major general, being brevetted for comspicuous gallantry in battles of the Wilderness, Chancellowville and Spottsylvania Court Hours, and was wounded three times. At the close of as a colonel of the 4th Infantry. It is as an Indian fighter that he is best known to the younger generation. He gained enviable distinction by his hard fighting and brilliant campaigns against the Commanches, the New Younger Scheller.
